133 WHITECHAPEL HIGH STREET

OVERVIEW

A meticulous Art Deco restoration, 133 Whitechapel High Street offers a creative work space in the start-up zone of East London.

Balancing wellbeing and productivity, you'll discover two outdoor spaces and a range of collaborative work spaces designed to inspire.

With a gym on-site there's no excuse not to squeeze a workout in between meetings, while the plentiful bike storage makes for a healthier commute.

Refuel during the say at the on-site café, where you'll find nutritious meals, great coffee and freshly baked treats throughout the day.

LOCATION

Once part of the East End's notorious 19th century street, modern Aldgate is now one of London's most culturally vibrant areas. The building is located between Aldgate and Aldgate East Stations with access to multiple underground lines. Spitalfields Market is a five minute walk away with plenty of options for lunch and after work drinks.
