

12-18 THEOBALDS ROAD

OVERVIEW

12-18 Theobalds Road was originally designed as a terraced row of single family residences but has been converted into flexible office space.

Spectacular period features have been retained including original staircases, fireplaces, cornices and wall panelling.

The offices range in size and the building can accommodate small, medium and large companies alike.

The building features outdoor space, various breakout and meeting rooms throughout and fully fitted office space which is ready to move into.
