

24 GREVILLE STREET

OVERVIEW

Positioned next to Farringdon's new Crossrail station, this striking Victorian warehouse conversion is the perfect balance of character and elegance.

Set across four floors, 24 Greville Street is filled with character and natural light.

Original brickwork, vast windows and steel columns have been retained - creating a work space with private offices, meeting rooms and a large outdoor space.

A variety of different sized offices are available on flexible short term agreements.

LOCATION

Midtown is one of London's best kept secrets, offering all the convenience of the City and West End whilst weaving together some of the city's most historic locations - including Bloomsbury, Holborn and St Giles. 24 Greville Street sits in the middle of all this, with a prime location on the doorstep of Farringdon's new Crossrail station.

Farringdon is a thriving hub for the creative and hospitality industries with an array of independent restaurants, bars and like-minded businesses in the surrounding streets.
