LOCATION

From its historic role as an avenue into London, modern Moorgate has become a centre of commerce in its own right, and an important business hub for the City of London. There are a huge array of cafes and restaurants to suit every occasion within easy walk of the building - from the trendy and lively in Shoreditch to the high end and exclusive in the City.

45 Moorfields is a few moments from Moorgate Underground station (Northern, Elizabeth and National Rail lines). Bank, Liverpool Street and Barbican stations are also within walking distance, allowing easy travel across the capital.
