

50 LIVERPOOL STREET

OVERVIEW

A brilliant example of grand architecture that has survived two world wars, 50 Liverpool Street is a striking building sat above the busy station.

There is a combination of modern and contemporary architecture as you glance through the stunning, original ached windows down into the bustling concourse of Liverpool Street station below.

With seven meeting rooms, as well as lounges and break-out areas, there's space for every type of collaboration.

The offices sit just above the main station concourse upstairs, making it a central location to meet, network and connect with people from near and far.

LOCATION

50 Liverpool Street sits in the heart of the City but a short walk to Shoreditch, meaning it's on the doorstep of both creative and financial capitals.

With Spitalfields market just a five minute walk away, and Brick Lane's famous curry houses just little further, you'll never be short of a team lunch or meeting destination. It's the ideal location for commuters and city-dwellers alike.
